REVOLUTION IT ACQUIRES QUALTECH INTERNATIONAL

Melbourne, Australia – 17 Sept 2007 – Leading software testing company Revolution IT today announced that it has acquired QualTech International.

“We are pleased to announce the rapid completion of the acquisition of one of Australia’s oldest and most established Software Testing Consultancies” said Mr Hamish Leighton, one of the Directors of Revolution IT. “The acquisition of QualTech International complements our existing products and services, and furthers Revolution IT’s long term plans to be the industry’s leading provider of Quality and Business Assurance Services”.

“This is Revolution IT’s first acquisition bringing total staff numbers to approximately 100 employees across Melbourne and Sydney. We are fully committed to sustain long term growth and expand our portfolio of offerings through further acquisitions and aggressive strategic hiring. With it’s now market leading capability Revolution IT is uniquely positioned to maximise benefits for all current and future customers”.

The acquisition follows on from a record year for Revolution IT in which they featured as Australia’s 6th fastest growing IT Company in the recent BRW 100 and opened an additional office in Sydney.

The brand of QualTech International will be gradually retired with all clients, staff and intellectual property joining Revolution IT’s operations.
